ROUSH VERDICT IS NEAR BURTON KILLS SELF CIVIL SERVERS RESUME PARLEY FOR DECISION

ENDS LIFE AT GARAGE BY SHOOTING

Don Burton, 32, unmarried, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Burton, 104 N. Charles-st., killed himself at noon Saturday, at Baxter Bros. garage, 123 W. Spring-st., by shooting.

He fired a bullet thru his temple and died an hour later, it is stated. The body was removed to the Williams & Davis morgue.

Burton was at the Baxter garage during the morning and it was supposed by attaches of the place that he had departed for his home, for luncheon, but a little later a revolver shot was heard and when an investigation was made, Burton was found lying on the floor in the garage, mortally wounded.

Two surgeons were called, but were unable to prevent the coming of death.

Burton formerly was engaged in the office supply business in Lima, giving it up when he entered the army for service in the world war. He had been in Lima for some time past. During the last week his time was chiefly spent at Baxter Bros. garage.

The rash act committed by Burton was not anticipated by others. Nothing about his demeanor indicated that such a thing was about to occur or that he harbored thought of self-destruction.

Close friends believe Burton was a victim of the horrors of the battlefields of France, which have previously been given as the cause of self-destruction by a large number of veterans.

Frank Baxter, of the Baxter garage, a brother-in-law of Burton, expressed the opinion that his action was prompted by despondency, as a result of the impairment of his business in this city while he was absent, serving in the war.

Burton had been employed in the oil fields at T. J. California, for two years, after returning home from France, and came to Lima shortly before Christmas, for a visit, which was prolonged.

Besides his parents, Burton is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Edna Vandyke, New York City; Mrs. B. H. Holmes, 1321 Lakewood-av and Mrs. P. E. Baxter, 123 N. Charles-st.

TAKES THE PLACE OF MATI-HARI

Mata-Hari (below), beautiful dancer and once the idol of Bohemian Paris, who was shot to death as a spy during the World War, "lives" again on a Paris stage. Theater-goers are flocking nightly to be thrilled by the reincarnation of her, presented by Cora Laparcerie (above), one of the greatest of French actresses.

FAMILIES FLEE AS HOMES BURN

WELLSTON, OHIO.—(Associated Press)—Much of the business center of this city was destroyed early today by fire which broke out soon after midnight. Fire departments from Chillicothe and Jackson were called to assist in fighting the flames.

The Lincoln Hotel and much of the block in which it was located was destroyed.

The origin of the fire has not been determined, although it is believed to have started in the Alexander Clothing store, which also was destroyed. Seven families living in the block destroyed were forced to flee from their homes in their night clothing.

Miss Goldie Robbins, a telephone operator, was injured while watching the fire when a telephone pole fell on her.

TRAINS TIED UP BY GREAT SNOW STORM

WASHINGTON.—(Associated Press)—Washington was cut off from the outside world today so far as transportation was concerned by one of the heaviest snowstorms in the history of the capital.

Officials at the union station shortly before nine o'clock reported that no passenger trains had left Washington since midnight and with the snow continuing prospects of getting any trains out was said to be poor. Three trains had arrived since midnight, two from New York long overdue and one Baltimore and Ohio express from Cincinnati.

Starting late yesterday afternoon and still continuing early today the snow had covered the national capital to a depth of from a foot and a half to two feet. Street car service was practically suspended early today and prospects were all activity, governmental and otherwise, would be greatly curtailed.

RECORDS BROKEN

The storm which covered a large section of the east, according to fragmentary reports available early in the day, did not come unheralded as for two or three days snow had been falling in the Atlantic states to the south of the Potomac river in some states such as Virginia breaking long standing records as to depth. The weather bureau yesterday had issued a prediction of heavy snow thru the east and northern portion of the south.

Pennsylvania-ave here was strewn with the hulks of wrecked automobiles. Absence of wind prevented the formation of drifts but the depth on the level was enough to strand practically all vehicles except those of the "over types."

Traffic service from the south where snow storms have been reported for two days and from which section the storm came, was wholly suspended. Several trains from the south were reported stalled between Richmond and Washington, with others being held at Richmond.

HELD IN A JEWEL ROBBERY

DuPre, police say, snatched a $2500 diamond and killed a detective in making his escape. It is also said the girl planned to flee with DuPre after the robbery.

J. J. CALVERT IS ACQUITTED NOTING

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio.—(Associated Press).—The jury in the second trial of former Mayor Jacob J. Calvert, charged with shooting Thomas McNiece, returned a verdict of not guilty this morning after having been out all night.

Calvert was found guilty at his first trial. Calvert, Police Chief John A. Long, Safety Director L. R. Campbell, Game Warden Frank Hardesty and Don Whiteacre were indicted in connection with the shooting of McNiece on the National-rd east of Cambridge, the night of March 11, 1921, while searching for whiskey runners.

Decision in the Roush case is expected to be made late Saturday.

The scheduled to meet to thresh out the case for a second time, Saturday morning, business pressure was given by members of the civil service commission as cause for not taking up the case in the morning.

A meeting called for 2 p. m. may decide whether O. J. Roush resumes authority at the station Saturday night, or Morton F. Dawson continues as boss of the department.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED AT BAR MEETING

AKRON.—(Associated Press).—Senator Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas, speaking at the Ohio Bar Association banquet last night, called upon the nation which rejected the League of Nations to demand greater accomplishments from the disarmament conference.

Senator Robinson doubled the readiness of the American people to accept the recently negotiated four-power treaty which "guarantees the political supremacy and demands of Japan in the Pacific, when we had refused to enter into a similar agreement with all the nations of the world, including our late allies."

Judge Robert H. Day of Canton, was chosen president of the association for the common pleas judges of Ohio which was organized today by the judicial action of the State Bar Association.

Other officers chosen were: Judge James W. Tarbell, Georgetown, and Judge Chauncey L. Newcomer, Bryan, vice-presidents; Judge Willard Wright, Lebanon, secretary, and Judge R. L. Cameron, Marysville, treasurer.

Upon recommendation of Chief Justice Marshall of the state supreme court the newly organized body approved a resolution to urge the adoption of uniform rules of practice in the courts of the 129 common pleas judges of the state and to standardize court charges on common pleas.

The bar association also went on record as approving the recommendations.

After the announcement was circulated Wednesday that Roush was reinstated, the civil service board, sought the approval of the city commission, on putting the former chief back on condition he would resign. PECULIAR POSITION.

This condition, becoming public, placed the board in a peculiar position, according to political dopesters. They argue, that the proposal shows Roush was practically acquitted, so far as the evidence is concerned.

Members of the commission sought to keep secret the time and place of meeting and were reluctant to talk of the case.

M. P. Colt, president of the commission, was not certain, he said, when the meeting would be held. It would depend on other members, he declared. Other information was to the effect that the meeting will be at 3 p. m.

No assurance was given that a verdict will be reached and the case concluded, as far as the commission is concerned.

Should the commission find Roush guilty, it will be asked to specify on which of the 11 remaining charges the verdict was formed, the deposed chief stated.

CLEANUP HINTED

A general clean-up of the entire department may be inaugurated if Roush goes. Members of the department who testified against him can be convicted on similar charges on their own evidence, it is asserted.

George Strick, night captain, is practically the only member of the department who has passed thru the case without being drawn in.

Insiders point to him as a candidate for chief, if the department is reorganized.

POPE MAY BE OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZED

ROME.—(Associated Press).—Several Republican members of the chamber of deputies are considering interpellation of Premier Bonomi upon the advisability of the Italian government officially recognizing the Pope. The attitude of the sacred college of the church toward a rapprochement is expected to be defined in its choice of a successor to the late Pope Benedict.

The Republican deputies became interested in the question when they learned that President DeNicola of the chamber, in accord with government policy, intended to pronounce a eulogy for the pontiff when the chamber reconvenes on February 2, which is also the date on which the sacred college will convene to choose the new Pope.

Semi-official newspapers yesterday published the statement that Signor DeNicola and President Tittoni of the senate were to announce officially from the tribunes of their respective houses the death of Benedict and pronounce a eulogy as is the custom after the death of foreign potentates.

WEATHERMAN IS AMIABLE

While the prevailing temperature is not of a kind of character to suggest springlike condition, nevertheless it affords a valid excuse for one to permit his thoughts to trend in that direction.

Despite the efforts of the weatherman to do the very best he can, under the circumstances, as is in the same position as a public official finds himself, when he endeavors to please everybody. The result is generally that he pleases nobody.

Altho boys are playing marbles and other springtime joys are being indulged by the kiddies, it's not an infallible sign that spring is here—or even near A "January thaw" is not improbable, it is held by the weather wise.

Fair tonight and probably sun-

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly learned, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to lose them willfully to narcotics.

HOW much do you use the railroads? You are not getting your share, on the average, unless you make 12 trips a year and travel a total of 456 miles.

Thirty-three years ago, the average American used the railroads eight times a year, traveling a total of 192 miles.

Now, 30 years isn't so long ago. The year 1889 is fairly fresh in the memories of millions.

You look at the figures on railroad passenger travel, and your comment probably is: "We certainly are stepping out. Times have changed amazingly."

The period of civilization in which we live is most wonderful in the way it has conquered space.

MAYBE you are one of the lucky who can recall a boyhood in a country town—and the thrill of going down to the village depot to watch "No. 17" steam in with a shrill screeching of brakes.

Out yonder, beyond the horizon, lay the Great Unexplored.

You recall your envy of the village banker when he returned from a trip to New York or some other metropolis.

To travel 50 miles by railroad, back in President Harrison's day, was a boyhood treat beyond the dreams of avarice.

Today the boy yawns as he climbs into the Pullman for a trip of 500 or 1000 miles. It's interesting, but not out of the ordinary. What he yearns for is to fly in that steel airplane overhead.

Travel, "far from home," once was a thrill even for the grown-ups. Now it's rather a dull necessity of a blase age.

IN 1889, the thrill of railroad travel was somewhat deadened by a subconscious fear of "gettin' killed by the cars."

In that year 472,000,000 people were carried by the railroads, and the chance of being killed in a smash-up was one in 1,523,000.

Now the railroads haul 1,300,000,000 passengers a year, and the chances of being killed has been cut to one in 5,673,000.

Airplane travel will be similarly made safer and safer as the years slip by.

The rising generation may be fated for airplane travel. That's where it's getting its thrill now—watch the flying machine.

It's a real thrill—probably not as much to the youngsters as to us grown-ups, for the youngsters have so many tricks of magic, like the wireless telephone, that they must be getting beyond thrills.

But the thrill of watching "No. 17" steam into the village depot in 1889 wasn't half bad—eh, pa?

INCOME TAX TIME

SINCE the 1921 income tax blanks have been issued, the time is again near when citizens will be cudgeling their brains in an effort to be as fair to their country as to themselves.

It makes little difference how highminded may be the person who is required to make a proper return, there are elements of uncertainty and doubt creeping in constantly and which result in innocent mistakes being made.

Those who are given blanks should remember that the government is asking a tax only on the excess above certain amounts and that the sum total should only include income. If this is done, the work will be simplified.

The best means to obtain fair and accurate results is to answer the questions asked, on a separate sheet of paper. Then, when the tabulations foot up correctly and indicate the amount conscience assures is due, transfer the figures to the proper blank and one's full duty will have been done.

Tax payers should remember that exemptions of $1,000 are allowed to one who is not the head of a family and $2,500 to the head of a family on incomes of $5,000 or less. Where there are dependents, $400 can be claimed in exemptions for each. There are other exemptions named on the blank, which the tax payer should carefully study, to determine the basis of payment, after all personal claims to which one is entitled have been satisfied.

When these rules are followed, it will not be necessary to spend hours making out a proper return. The sentiment should exist that the government is not seeking to harass the people. They are merely asked to set out honestly and equitably the sums they have earned during the previous twelve months and pay taxes on the amount of the income exceeding exemptions.

Tax paying time is not a joy time, but it is a duty, despite the gloom it brings.

SEA FIGHT

CAPTAIN Poole reports that his ship for an hour passed thru a blood-red sea in which hundreds of whales were dead or dying.

Poole thinks there had been a battle between an army of swordfish and an army of whales, for possession of a food supply such as a school of smaller fish.

In the excitement, the small fish probably got away. Like a war between men—the original issue is soon forgotten in the fury of battle. An assassination started the World War but the assassination was hardly mentioned at the peace conference.

'ROUND LIMA HOUR BY HOUR

BY OH, OH, JACKENRIM

A Page from the Diary of an Antiquated Reporter—Up betimes, and hearing a familiar sound below stairs, hurried there to find Francell, our one-time jewel house-keeper. And I to her after greetings, saying glad I was to know she had sense enough to come back home. She having a wanderer been to Gotham and Brooklyn Bridge. Yet as she visited she threw on the derrick, for only had for the meal dropped in as a surprise. And surprise it was with sausage and buckwheat cakes, toasted biscuits and Ritz coffee, the kind you pay 10 for the pot, and 25 carrying charges. As Fred Gooding said after his last eastern trip, a cent a sip for our coffee we paid.

My wife, poor wretch, heavy of sleep, yet hearing, rang her bell as of old and Francell up with a breakfast tray. Then of the discourse of the two I heard my wife say we would adopt her outright, giving a full third of my property, real and unreal, share and share alike. To

So abroad and met with Martin Nellis, who turns photographs into publicity and we talked of Art and how the tendency did seem blatant and Byzantine, compared with a few years ago. We both like a Billstein Dorie.

Thence to the post and greeted by a letter from Brother John, who against my protest and advice, went back to the bushes; when he hero was making 20-a-week and had fire insurance for double the cost of the house; and with John Wyre at that. A clench, as easy as selling Ford's at auction on a Saturday afternoon in Ada. But altho, Bro. The VITAL AUTOMATIC VACUUM CLEANER

UNTIL the invention of the Vital, the use of vacuum cleaners was restricted to homes with electricity. Now the Vital has freed thousands of women from the bondage of broom and dust pan sweeping, because it creates its own power.

Every home in the country can have a Vital. It will clean from cellar to attic without bothersome electric cords.

The Vital is the first successful automatic vacuum cleaner. It is the only automatic vacuum cleaner tested and endorsed by Good Housekeeping Institute of Good Housekeeping Magazine.

The Vital is half the price of any vacuum cleaner that compares with it.

SPENT HALF HER TIME IN BED

Farmer's Wife Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman

Carters Creek, Tenn.—"Three years ago I was almost an invalid. I spent half of my time in bed, being afflicted with a trouble which doctors said was incurable. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sana-Tive Wash. I am a well woman now and have been for two years. I can work as well as any one who is younger and as I am a farmer's wife I have plenty to do for I cultivate my own garden, raise my chickens and do my own housework. You may publish this letter as I am ready to do anything to help other women as I have been so well and happy since my troubles are past."—Mrs. E. L. GALLOWAY, Carters Creek, Tenn.

Most women find plenty to do. If they are upset with some female ailment and troubled with such symptoms as Mrs. Galloway had, the smallest duty seems a mountain.

If you find it hard to keep up, if you are nervous and irritable, without ambition and out of sorts generally, give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. We believe it will help you greatly, for it has helped others.

PROTEST IS MADE ON GAS RATE

Real Estate Board Adopts Reso- lution in Annual Meet

Protests against the $1 gas rate granted by the public utilities commission will probably be held before the city commission Monday night, by groups of citizens, it was indicated Saturday.

The first formal complaint to be presented will be that incorporated in a resolutions adopted Friday night by the Lima Real Estate board.
President L. T. Palmer of the Ohio
Real Estate association and H. G.
Neff, secretary of the state association, were speakers, at the annual banquet meeting.

That body, at its regular monthly meeting in the Barr hotel, went on record as declaring the increase to be detrimental to growth of the city. The protest will go to the commission Monday.

Instructions authorizing Solicitor
Paul Landis to appeal the rate decision to Ohio supreme court will probably be given by the commission in the form of a resolution.

Previous court decisions in cases where the situation is similar to that in Lima seem rare, attorneys state.
Should the city carry the case up on appeal, a dissolution of the rate will be sought, or a modification of the order.

No effort is being contemplated by the city commission at this time to attract concerns manufacturing artificial gas to Lima, so far as known.
One commissioner stated it is scarcely probable any company could be induced to come here unless a clear field was assured.
